Catch on to This.

Now is the season to buy your paints, oils and brushes. It would pay you to go to M. Brown, corner of Seventh and N. streets northwest, before purchasing elsewhere.

Eudene's Spring and Summer Goods.

This popular establishment, at 60 and 62 Seventh street n. w., is receiving its full supply of spring and summer goods, viz., all sizes and quantities of elegant, desirable bed-room sets in solid oak, also new matting, heavy carpets, etc. Particularly deserving mention is Eudene's on a cash basis with very weekly or monthly payments to suit the purchaser.

 tre Market, and 240 and 242 Northern Liberty.
 Corned beef a specialty.

SMUGGLING YELLOW FEVER.

Measures Taken to Prevent Yellow Jack's Introduction.

Surgeon General Hamilton of the Marine Hospital Service has returned from Florida and is now in New York.
 The result of his visit to Jacksonville is that an understanding has been effected with the Florida State Board of Health, whereby another revenue cutter has been ordered to cruise along the coast to assist in the work of keeping out small smuggling vessels that are apt to bring epidemic diseases into the country. Governor Fleming of Florida has requested in a recent letter to the Secretary of the Treasury the co-operation of the Government to assist in patrolling the coast in order to prevent the introduction of yellow fever from smuggling vessels.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Capital Tennis Club hold an all-day tournament to-day at Fifteenth and U streets.

John Murphy, by his will filed yesterday, leaves all his property to his children, his brother being trustee.

The young people of Mrs. Bishop's Urdine Temple have elected officers for a new quarter with Abbie Cole as Chief Triumphant.

To-morrow the office of the Equitable C. B. Association will be open from 6 to 8 p. m. and daily thereafter till 9 p. m. for the first payment on the seventeenth issue of stock.

The National Investment Company has purchased from the Acker brothers all of square 66, between E. F. Sixth and Seventh streets, containing 102,000 feet, $20,000 being the price paid.

Mr. Nicholas Bell, Superintendent of Foreign Mails, was yesterday presented with an engraved souvenir testimonial of esteem by the clerks of his office prior to his departure for St. Louis.

Mrs. Wamamaker's Home.

The handsome residence of Postmaster-General Wamamaker on F street is being put in readiness for the arrival of his wife and daughters from Europe during autumn.
 Most of the furniture now in the house is the property of ex-Secretary Whitney, left there until the Postmaster could make arrangements to furnish it himself. Mr.
 Wamamaker has purchased a portion of the furniture, much of which was originally the property of ex-Secretary Frelinghuysen.
 It will be entirely renovated, as it shows the marks of age. Mr. Wamamaker's collection of pictures, except those loaned to the Paris Exposition, have been hung in his Washington home. Mrs. Thomas Wam-amaker will not return during the present season.

Temple Officers.

Officers for the ensuing quarter were elected yesterday at the meeting of Annie K. Bond's Holloway Independent Temple in Wom's Hall last night as follows: John Dauenhower, C. T.; Grace Bowbeer, V. T.; Harry Hodges, secretary; Helen Reid, F. S.; Walter Brown, treasurer; Eva Young, charlady; Percy Reardon, marshal; Lulu Dauenhower, guard; Ernest Dupre, sentinel; Annie Harper, R. S.; Elsie Sellers, L.
 S.; May Shiel, assistant marshal; Lillie Burge, deputy marshal; Kate Bowbeer, pianist.

Bible Society Officers.

The board of directors of the Washington Bible Society held their annual meeting last evening at 6 o'clock in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was presided over by the president of the board, Dr. A. W. Pitzer. After the reading of the annual report of the president, secretary and treasurer, which were read, the election followed, which resulted in the re-election of all the old officers. The meeting then adjourned.

By the Police Inspection Test.

Assistant Secretary Tichenor has decided that sugars are liable to duty according to the police inspection test. The decision sustains an appeal of the American Sugar Refining Company from the decision of the Collector of Customs at San Francisco, who had assessed sugars in excess of the police inspection basis on the theory that they had been artificially colored.

Disaffected Stockholders.

The stockholders in the Hammer Union Telephone Company, who were formerly directors of the Hammer Improved Telephone Company, held a meeting yesterday to make a final appeal for a statement as to the condition of the company. If their request is not complied with they propose to bring suit.

Where the Cyclers Will Meet.

Hagerstown, Md., has been settled upon as the place for the annual meet of the League of American Wheelmen. Washington was mentioned as the place for the meeting but Hagerstown was decided upon as the most convenient. A number of Washington wheelmen will ride the distance, a total of over 100 miles.

A Turpentine Claim Allowed.

Sophia B. Duffy was yesterday given a verdict for $15,370 in the Court of Claims, for turpentine destroyed during the war.
 The court has reported a finding of the facts as to the French Spoliation cases and certified them to Congress.

Sir Julian's Presentation.

Secretary Blaine had an interview to-day with Sir Julian Pauley, the English Minister, to make arrangements for the setting the new ambassador when the President returns from New York.

An Attempt.

To describe the variety of styles of children's clothing we are selling at $3.50 and $2.50 would require too much time and space. Come and see for yourself. Establishment, 7th & E. Children's Department.

To Help Out With the Census.

Postmaster-General Wamamaker has sent a circular letter to the 35,000 postmasters, directing them to give such information as Census Commissioner Porter may request.

 spending the winter here with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius A.
 Logan of 1208 R street, will return to her home in Braintree, Ont., next Thursday.

Marshall Wilson is in New York attending the Washington Centennial, while Mrs. Wilson remains here to look after the Catholic Fair, with which she is connected. It was because the managers of the fair decided to continue it another week that she did not accompany the Marshall to New York.

Mrs. Allie Sharpe Pickersell and Mr.
 George Balch, son of Commodore Balch, U. S. N., were quietly married yesterday at the home of the bride, on L street. Only the intimate friends of the contracting parties were present.
 The ceremony was performed by Rev.
 Mr. Patch. A reception and collation followed the marriage, and at 2:30 the happy pair took the train for New York.

ALEXANDRIA.

The foundation for the pedestal for Elders' statue, "Appomattox," at Alexandria, in commemoration of those who lost their lives in the Confederate war, begins to-day, Wm. Henry Burges having charge of the work. Mr.
 Burges is the man who claims to have seen the remains of General Washington when they were removed in 1836.
